

FINAL
Minutes of the Commission on Aging Monthly Meeting
December 7, 2016

Attendees: Doris Armstrong, Barbara Bloom, Janet Lamenzo, Al LeFebvre, Lucille Morisse, Toby Neuwirth, Susan Odoms, Paul Pelletier, Shirley Thompson, Gus Walek, Paula Walek

Guests: Yvette Huyghue-Pannell (Senior Services Liaison)

Absent: Charlotte Gregg, Jeannette Rivers

The meeting was called to order at 12:01 pm.

Commission member contact information is tabled until all members have had the opportunity to confirm the accuracy of their information.

Members were asked to reconfirm 2017 meeting dates.

Yvette acknowledged that Lucille and Jeannette's sisters recently passed away and asked for a moment of silence in their honor.

Yvette explained that the Town has a new website--Virtual Town Hall. There is a page for the Commission on Aging, and meeting minutes and agendas are in the process of being updated. She spoke briefly about last week's trip to the National Museum of African American History and Culture in Washington, DC. It proved to be a deeply moving experience for everyone who went. Upcoming events include:

A "Mocktail" Mixer	3:30 pm on Thursday, December 8
The Heavy Shtetl Klezmer Band	1:30 pm on Monday, December 12
Footcare Clinic	Monday, December 19

Yvette also mentioned that Duncaster is considering an aquatic dance class, and several "seniors" have expressed an interest.

Gus made a motion to accept the November minutes; Paula seconded. The minutes are approved.

Paula made a motion to adjourn. Shirley seconded. There being no further business, the meeting adjourned at 12:50 pm.

The next meeting will take place at the Senior Center at 12:00 noon on Wednesday, January 4, 2017.

Respectfully submitted,

Barbara Bloom, Secretary^m
