On the above date and time, officers were dispatched to Lowes on the report of a male and female in a white pickup truck appearing to get ready to enter the store. The truck and suspects were recognized for previous larcenies occurring in Newington and Bloomfield. As officers approached the truck, it quickly took off. Officers then pursued the vehicle into Hartford. With the assist of Hartford Police, officers were finally able to have the vehicle stopped on Route 44 and Irving St in Hartford. Where the suspect vehicle collided with a light post in Hartford and sustained front end damage. A BPD Cruiser sustained damage to the front right passenger's side as a result of the suspect's vehicle rolling back and colliding with the cruiser. Both suspects were arrested, and the truck was seized.
