On 09/10/2025 at 12:57 p.m. Bloomfield Police Department was contacted by the Hartford Police Department regarding an 18-year-old male suffering from puncture wounds to the torso at 500 Blue Hills Avenue claiming to have occurred in Bloomfield. The victim was transported to St. Francis Hospital for treatment. BPD sent an officer to St. Francis to investigate.

BPD officers were able to ascertain that a group disturbance occurred on Revere Drive involving multiple males and blood was located at that location. The BPD Detective unit is processing the scene on Revere Drive.

Hospital staff conveyed that the victim received non-life threatening wounds and would not require surgery. The victim was anticipated to be held overnight for observation.

Bloomfield Police continue to investigate this incident. No suspect information is available for dissemination as of this writing. Anyone with information concerning this incident is encouraged to contact the Bloomfield Police Department at 860-242-5501.
