

Pursuant to Section 7-148b through 7-148f of the General Statutes of Connecticut, and Section 12-36 of the Bloomfield Town Code, there is hereby created a fair rent commission which shall consist of five (5) electors and taxpayers of the town who shall be appointed by Town Council.

The members shall be appointed to serve a term of one (1) year from the date of appointment, The Director of Health assigned to the commission shall serve without vote as an ex officio member of the commission.

Mission:

The Fair Rent Commission of the Town of Bloomfield was created for the purpose of maintaining reasonable rental rates and eliminating excessive rental charges on residential properties within the town. The Fair Rent Commission will investigate and act on complaints, inquiries, and other communications concerning alleged excessive rental charges in housing accommodations in Bloomfield.

Any tenant living in Bloomfield is eligible to file a complaint with the Fair Rent Commission. It will investigate and act on complaints, inquiries and other communications regarding alleged excessive rental charges. There are five members appointed to this body.